takeaway:

and provide training to university staff on the topics covered in the resolution agreement.

student readmission to the program and refund all monies received from the student for that semester, include a detailed interactive process for disability accommodations in clinical settings, offer the procedure for obtaining academic adjustments during her graduate program and that the university did not discuss the student's need for academic adjustments with the clinical site. The university alleged conclude the investigation, the university decided to enter into a resolution agreement. The resolution accommodations, even if the student will be completing coursework in a clinical or other off-campus

DSS testing policy update

DSS is also excited to announce that we are partnering with the Disability Advocates Organization to representatives. USGA will provide pizza and other refreshments. Please encourage your students to DSS would like to remind all faculty members that exams submitted to DSS for testing should be in an accessible format. Exams should be in a Word document or accessible PDF to ensure any format, please contact DSS prior to the date of the exam.

If you would like further guidance or clarification as to whether your document is in an appropriate hot topics:

Peer-Notetaking

Students with disabilities enhance the culture at UAB by inspiring strength and creativity in our community through their unique approaches to education and student life. UAB's Disability services (DSS). DSS facilitates the documentation review process to ensure a thorough and balanced review of disability through the DSS eligibility process. He meets with students for accommodation planning meetings

Andrew has been with DSS since 2015. His primary role as Assistant Director is to assist students years. As Associate Director, she assists in the facilitates the documentation review process to ensure a thorough and balanced review of disability

Andrew has been named the new Associate Director and

Dupree has been named the new Associate Director and students for their exceptional efforts towards select faculty and staff are recognized by

in supporting students with disabilities. Each year, two distinguished professors for their active work

Verbeek makes great efforts to make his classroom friendly, diverse and accommodating for all his

students who might struggle turning in work. One student pointed out, "I have a hard time meeting deadlines

His flexibility is demonstrated with assignment reminders and frequent communications to students

disabilities. A nominee reported that Verbeek makes lectures clearly audible and multifaceted in the Faculty Award from DSS. He was noted for his incredible empathy and flexibility for his students with

Department of Anthropology.

students for their exceptional efforts towards

Each year,

one student at every institution during the fall semester.

Hot Topics:

Peer-Notetaking

Students with disabilities enhance the culture at UAB by inspiring strength and creativity in our

community through their unique approaches to education and student life. UAB's Disability

services (DSS). DSS facilitates the documentation review process to ensure a thorough and balanced review of disability

through the DSS eligibility process. He meets with students for accommodation planning meetings

Andrew has been with DSS since 2015. His primary role as Assistant Director is to assist students

years. As Associate Director, she assists in the

facilitates the documentation review process to ensure a thorough and balanced review of disability

through the DSS eligibility process. He meets with students for accommodation planning meetings

Andrew has been named the new Associate Director and

Dupree has been named the new Associate Director and

students for their exceptional efforts towards

select faculty and staff are recognized by

in supporting students with disabilities. Each year,

two distinguished professors for their active work

Verbeek makes great efforts to make his classroom friendly, diverse and accommodating for all his

students who might struggle turning in work. One student pointed out, "I have a hard time meeting deadlines

His flexibility is demonstrated with assignment reminders and frequent communications to students

disabilities. A nominee reported that Verbeek makes lectures clearly audible and multifaceted in the

Faculty Award from DSS. He was noted for his incredible empathy and flexibility for his students with

Department of Anthropology.

students for their exceptional efforts towards

Each year,

one student at every institution during the fall semester.

Hot Topics:

Peer-Notetaking

Students with disabilities enhance the culture at UAB by inspiring strength and creativity in our

community through their unique approaches to education and student life. UAB's Disability

services (DSS). DSS facilitates the documentation review process to ensure a thorough and balanced review of disability

through the DSS eligibility process. He meets with students for accommodation planning meetings

Andrew has been with DSS since 2015. His primary role as Assistant Director is to assist students

years. As Associate Director, she assists in the

facilitates the documentation review process to ensure a thorough and balanced review of disability

through the DSS eligibility process. He meets with students for accommodation planning meetings

Andrew has been named the new Associate Director and

Dupree has been named the new Associate Director and

students for their exceptional efforts towards

select faculty and staff are recognized by

in supporting students with disabilities. Each year,

two distinguished professors for their active work

Verbeek makes great efforts to make his classroom friendly, diverse and accommodating for all his

students who might struggle turning in work. One student pointed out, "I have a hard time meeting deadlines

His flexibility is demonstrated with assignment reminders and frequent communications to students

disabilities. A nominee reported that Verbeek makes lectures clearly audible and multifaceted in the

Faculty Award from DSS. He was noted for his incredible empathy and flexibility for his students with

Department of Anthropology.