

building belonging

discussion questions

1.

What are some key distinctions between diversity and inclusion? In what ways can diversity without inclusion backfire?

2.

Have you personally witnessed diversity efforts take place without a parallel drive to foster inclusion? If so, what were the results?

3.

What are some potential values of having a diversity of perspectives available? Have you personally experienced any benefit from this?