

cultural competency

discussion questions sheet three

1.

Have you noticed any cultural differences between yourself and others who were raised in similar circumstances? Did these surprise you? Discuss similarities as well.

2.

Can you think of harmful stereotypes that you might have been raised with, or that you encounter in your work or personal life? What are they, and how can you address them?

3.

What does it mean to remain in a mode of questioning? Why might this be useful in becoming culturally competent?
