If someone tells you they have experienced a form of prohibited conduct:

WHAT TO DO:
1. If someone tells you they have experienced a form of prohibited conduct, first, offer them support, listen to them and encourage them to seek help and counseling as soon as possible.
2. If the individual’s safety is an immediate concern, call 911 or contact the Huntsville Police Department Non-Emergency: 256-722-7100.
3. Tear this card at the perforation. Keep this half for your information, and provide the other half to the reporting party.
4. Share reporting options. Inform reporter that a formal complaint can be filed with the Title IX Coordinator in accordance with the Title IX Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Violence Policy.
5. The Title IX Office can be contacted to assist you in responding to the report. You should not investigate the complaint.

If you have experienced a form of prohibited conduct:

WHAT TO KNOW:
1. You are in control.
2. You have the right to choose whom you will talk to, what resources you will use, what you will say and when you will say it.
3. If you choose to share your experience, your disclosure will be taken seriously and you will be treated with dignity and respect.
4. The University will respond promptly and effectively to reports of Prohibited Conduct and will take appropriate action to prevent its occurrence, correct and address its effects, provide supportive measures, and, when warranted, issue discipline for violations of the Title IX Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, And Sexual Violence Policy.
5. You will be protected from retaliation. UAB does not tolerate acts of retaliation against anyone filing a complaint or participating in an investigation.

WHAT SHOULD I SAY?
“Thank you for sharing with me. Please know you are not at fault. There are resources available to you both on campus and off-campus. Please know that you can decide what happens next. You have the right to make a report to the police department, UAB Title IX Office, or choose not to report. Retaliation for reporting is prohibited and should be reported to the Title IX Office. What can I do to support you?”

Prohibition on Retaliation
UAB has a strong prohibition against retaliation. The University does not tolerate acts of retaliation against anyone for filing a complaint or participating in an investigation. Every effort will be made to protect your privacy.

HOW TO MAKE A REPORT?
Any person (whether the person reporting is the person alleged to be the victim of Prohibited Conduct) may make a Report, including anonymously, of Prohibited Conduct to the persons below in person (during business hours) or by mail, by telephone, or by email using the contact information below at any time, including during non-business hours:
