

TITLE IX RESPONSIBLE EMPLOYEE TRAINING

Sexual Violence Prevention and Response

Featuring:

Juliette Grimmatt. Chrysalis Network Founder

The Vital Role of Campus Employees

Employees make up a significant part of a campus community. As such, they often serve as key role models and resources of support for the campus community. This interactive training will build upon these relationships, focusing on the positive impact that employees can have in both creating a culture that actively works to stop sexual violence, while also learning skills to be effective pillars of support for survivors of this violence.

Participants will leave with a toolbox of skills to be effective responders and advocates of prevention when it comes to sexual violence.
