If someone tells you they have experienced a form of prohibited conduct:

WHAT TO DO:

1. If someone tells you they have experienced a form of prohibited conduct, first, offer them support, listen to them and encourage them to seek help and counseling as soon as possible.
2. If the individual’s safety is in immediate concern, call 911 or for non-emergency, contact the Local Police Department. Selma: (334) 874-6611 or Montgomery: (334) 624-2532.
3. Tear this card at the perforation. Keep this half for your information, and provide the other half to the reporting party.
4. Report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator in accordance with the Title IX Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Violence Policy.
5. Allow the Title IX Office to conduct the investigation in accordance with the Title IX Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Violence Policy and related procedures.

If you have experienced a form of prohibited conduct:

WHAT TO KNOW:

• You are in control.
• You have the right to choose whom you will talk to, what resources you will use, what you will say and when you will say it.
• If you choose to share your experience, your disclosure will be taken seriously and you will be treated with dignity and respect.
• The University will respond promptly and effectively to reports of Prohibited Conduct and will take appropriate action to prevent its occurrence, correct and address its effects, provide supportive measures, and, when warranted, issue discipline for violations of the Title IX Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, And Sexual Violence Policy.
• You will be protected from retaliation. UAB does not tolerate acts of retaliation against anyone filing a complaint or participating in an investigation.

Actions to consider:

• Preserve the physical evidence.
• Speak confidentially to a professional or pastoral counselor.
• File a formal complaint with the Title IX Office.
• Report to Law Enforcement.
• Go somewhere you feel safe.
• Seek supportive measures.
• Seek medical attention.
• Submit an anonymous report.
• Seek a sexual assault forensic exam within 72 hours.

Options:

• You have many resources available to you at UAB and in the community.
• You have the right to report to the University to initiate an administrative process. Contact the Title IX Office at 205-996-1340, titleixoffice@uab.edu.
• You have the right to report to local law enforcement to initiate a criminal process.
RESPONSE GUIDE
WHAT SHOULD I SAY?
“Thank you for sharing with me. Please know you are not at fault. There are resources available to you both on campus and off-campus. Please know that you can decide what happens next. You have the right to make a report to the police department, UAB Title IX Office, or choose not to report. Retaliation for reporting is prohibited and should be reported to the Title IX Office. What can I do to support you?”
