Subject: DOPM I.T. (Computer) Tip of the Week -- Reopen an unintentionally closed webpage tab

How to Reopen an unintentionally closed webpage tab	Brought to you by Adim Premani - one of the Student Techs in MT-111
SITUATION: You have accidentally closed a tab for a website that you were working on or needed later. SOLUTION: In most browsers, this simple combination of keys will automatically remember what you closed and reopen it: Ctrl + Shift + t
